AWASI ATACAMA - CHILE

Located in the heart of San Pedro village, just a walk from the historical center, the old church, the local market and the main place, Awasi Atacama Lodge, member of Relais & Château since 2011, offers a privileged location. There, the guests can enjoy the authentic and picturesque local “town life” at the same time as the absolute quietness of the preserved setting of the hotel.

DESTINATION

San Pedro de Atacama, a small town surrounded by impression natural scenery, has always been an oasis stopover for travellers searching for water and rest. Considered today to be the archaeological capital of Chile, San Pedro continues to be a silent witness of the passage of time. Nestled behind an ancient adobe wall, Awasi Atacama is a private place reserved for its guests. Located inside an historical site which for years housed shepherds and herders, this lodge built with stone, wood and clay, carries on hosting the travellers looking for an unforgettable experience in Atacama Desert.

This hotel is suitable for families and couples. Open all year.

Access: 1h30 by road from Calama (airport). 630 km (390 miles) from Salta, Argentina (airport).
