BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Inkaterra La Casona, Cusco's first boutique hotel and Relais & Chateaux in Peru, reflects the city's mélange of cultures and traditions. A striking 16th century mansion — one of the first Spanish constructions in Cusco — occupied by the first conquistadores and their mestizo descendants. This national monument is now an exclusive hotel located at the traditional Plaza Las Nazarenas, in the heart of the historical city. Inkaterra has meticulously restored an 11-suite manor house, maintaining the original design and architecture around an open patio.

Guests will appreciate the patina of time and tradition, as colonial furnishings and original murals blend with lavish contemporary comforts. Fully equipped suites with open fireplaces are graced with down duvets, heated floors and extra-large bathtubs. The amenities of the manor include dining area, outdoor patio and reading lounge for enjoying Cusco's timeless vibrancy. Inkaterra La Casona may be booked as individual suites, or as an entire Villa, offering a hub from which to discover the region.

CUSCO INFORMATION

Cusco is over 1000 km. away from Lima at 3,400 meters (11,152 ft.) above sea level. It can be accessed by car or plane from Lima or Puerto Maldonado, and by car, plane or train from Puno and Arequipa. The Cusco Airport, 10 minutes from the hotel, is served by hourly flights from Lima or daily flights from Puno, Arequipa, Puerto Maldonado and La Paz.

The strategic location at Plaza Las Nazarenas, next to the Museum of Pre-Colombian Art (MAP), allows you to know the famous city from the moment you step out of the hotel. Walk the cobbled stone streets of the artistic district of San Blas for an intimate discovery, or explore by car with a bilingual guide for a more extensive exploration of the archaeological sites, colonial churches and living cultures within Cusco or the Sacred Valley of the Incas, at additional cost. The Experience Concierge offers assistance to the traveler, arranging Cusco excursions that reveal the ancient city's best-kept secrets, as well as journeys all over Peru.

LOCATION MAP

THE EXPERIENCE

Feel the vibrancy in this former capital of the vast Incan Empire now transformed as the most important colonial center in the Andes, axis of exploration and the favorite destination for today's international traveler. Meet and mingle with the people, the mestizo architecture and local traditions which reflect each of the chapters of Cusco history.

Sense the Cusqueño pride in their ancestral culture while assimilating international influences as they share these with the people from around the world who visit Cusco, perhaps the most international city in Peru.

As you walk the cobbled streets, against the backdrop of Inca and colonial monuments, Cusco's Quechua-speaking inhabitants merge with visitors around modern hotels, quaint restaurants and artisan shops. Link with the locals and travelers alike who enjoy the city's busy local markets or its unique nightlife.

Re-live the traditions at Inkaterra La Casona that will provide you the privileged exposure to Cusco's hybrid history and the secrets surrounding its majestic past. Centrally located on the original Inca settlement near Cusco's present-day main square, Inkaterra La Casona offers walking access to lovely streets where you can enjoy the perspective, comfort and exclusivity of those who lived in the manor during four centuries.

Experience and explore from Inkaterra La Casona, a destination as well as a hub from which to begin your discovery of the Andes. Discerning guests can visit the various valleys and villages surrounding the city, absorbing the magic and mysticism; or they can organize their excursions to major travel destinations in Peru.

Appreciate Cusco's unique mestizo grandeur, the inspiration for the remodeling, which maintains the blended essence of Spanish design and local traditions. Enjoy its contemporary fixtures integrated with the original facilities, traditional colors, murals, and stone reflecting the patina of several eras.

PRIVATE AND EXCLUSIVE

Inkaterra La Casona operates as a private manor for a small limited number of guests, and as such is not open to the public, thus maintains its doors closed like a private residence. All facilities and areas are for the exclusive use of in-house guests only.

Guests meeting their tour guides or tour coordinators may do so at the Foyer, else the latter may wait for them outside the manor in order not to disturb other guests.

The Guest Services desk may assist in taking all messages. Inkaterra La Casona extends all possible assistance so guests will experience utmost relaxation, privacy and tranquility during their stay.

AMBIENCE & DESIGN

Inkaterra La Casona has been carefully restored to retain its historical heritage. It has been equipped with modern comforts without sacrificing authenticity, capturing the sense of privacy and privilege shared by those who once lived there.

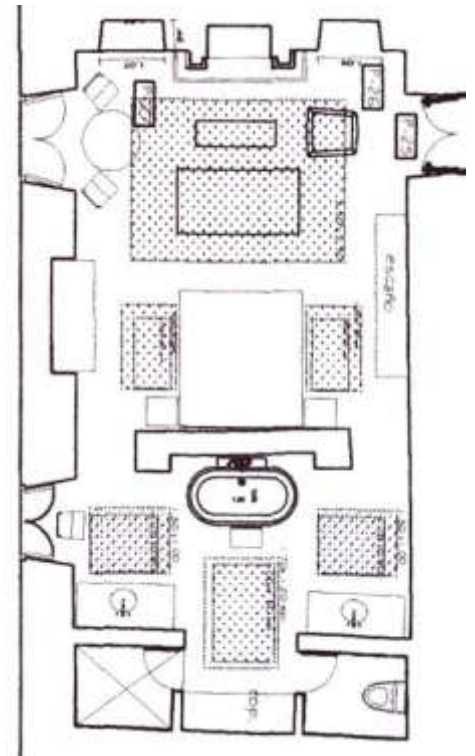

The decoration incorporates baroque colonial furniture and grand Spanish splendor; adobe, plaster, tile, fire and water are the main design elements. Guests will experience the tranquility and repose that Inkaterra La Casona once offered to illustrious travelers who visited it in earlier times.
